

A WEBCAST:

EMERGING CONSIDERATIONS IN MATERNAL MENTAL HEALTH

FEBRUARY 9, 2018
9:30AM-2:30PM

COMMUNITY ROOM,
GALLATIN COUNTY COURTHOUSE

3rd FLOOR
311 W MAIN,
BOZEMAN, MT

AGENDA

Registration

9:30-10AM

Webcast Begins: Welcome & Introductions

10-10:20AM

Dyane Harwood: A Personal Story

10:20-10:30AM

Katherine Wisner, MD, MS:
Maternal Depression, Anxiety & Bipolar
Onset, Screening, and More

10:30-11:45AM

BREAK*

11:45-12PM

Roseanne Clark, PhD: Infant Mental Health

12-12:45PM

Panel

12:45-1:30PM

Discuss: State of Local Postpartum Support

1:30-2:30PM

*Bring your own lunch or grab something during the 15-minute break. The time zone difference prevents us from breaking for a full hour.

2020 Mom

One of the many ways that 2020 Mom carries out our mission is by convening thought leaders and stakeholders at our annual forum. Together we discover and discuss emerging considerations in pregnancy-related mental health care. In these settings, we contemplate new research, learn about successful strategies and impactful programs, grow networks, and discuss pathways to improving access to treatment, detection and early intervention, through policy and advocacy.

Learn more: www.2020mom.org/annual-forum/

Katherine Wisner, MD

Roseanne Clark, PhD

Dyane Harwood

Sponsored by Gallatin City-County Health Department, Project LAUNCH

RSVP (FOR FREE) BY EMAIL:
SARAH.WEBB@GALLATIN.MT.GOV