

Care/Case Management Model CoverSheet

Program Name: Montana Primary Care Association

Population Focus: summary of models used in CHC's

Program Objectives: share various models since the short notice most CHCs are not able to present (schedules are not able to be cleared upon such short notice(there is only one chc that can present))

Program Description: models of care/case management being used in CHC's: MATSUC models of care management; models for diabetic care and chronic disease management; care management for pediatrics for children suffering from trauma;

Required Care/Case Management Staff: varies from CHC toC cHC: RN's MA's, social workers, Licensed counselors, team case managers, navigators,community outreach workers, coaches

Program Demographics

Monthly member count: varies by clinic

Average monthly program cost per member: depends on the complexity of the disease

Average monthly total benefit cost per population member:

depends not he complexity of the population

Monthly provider count: can range from very few to many

Average # of members per provider:

provider panels in primary care range from 1000-15000

Average monthly provider program revenue:

Program Measurements

patient disease outcomes: HbA1C, hypertension, functionality(chronic pain)etc