

2015 World AIDS Day theme:
The time to act is NOW!

To date in 2015: 11 DPHHS HIV prevention sites have tested 1,405 Persons.

7 were found to be HIV positive.

86% were linked to care.

The number and percentage of HIV positive Montanans in Ryan White HIV care in 2014 (407/89%) surpasses the national average.

The Ryan White program is a federally funded program to improve availability of health care for those who do not have sufficient health care coverage to cope with HIV disease. For more information visit: <http://hab.hrsa.gov/abouthab/aboutprogram.html>

