

7.3 PUBLICATION DISCLAIMER

Policy: Title X sub-recipients shall place an acknowledgement and a disclaimer, as appropriate, on any publication written or published with support under this grant and, if feasible, on any publication reporting the results of or describing a grant-supported activity (Title X Guideline 9.12).

Procedure:

1. All statements, press releases, and other documents or media pieces intended to educate Title X clients and made available to the public must be reviewed and approved by the I&E Committee prior to use, publication, or release.
2. All public notices, information pamphlets, press releases, research reports, posters, public service announcements, web sites and similar modes of presenting public information pertaining to the services and activities developed and printed with funds from the Family Planning Program must include the following statement:

“This publication was supported through grant FPHPA0XXXXX-XX-X from the Department of Health and Human Services. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Department.”

3. The new grant number will be provided in the Megamemo or contact FPP for the current grant award number 406-444-3609.
4. The U.S. Government has unrestricted use of publications funded by Title X (45 CFR 59.211).
5. Publications developed under Title X must NOT contain information contrary to Title X Program Requirements, QFP or accepted clinical practice.
