

Pamela A. Roberts, M.D.

Dr. Roberts graduated Summa Cum Laude from Wright State University (Dayton, Ohio) in 1976, with a BS in Biology. She earned her M.D. degree from The Ohio State University in 1979. A three-year family practice residency was completed at Grant Hospital, Columbus Ohio, in 1982. This was followed by one year as teaching faculty in the Grant Hospital residency program. In 1983 she moved with her husband to Montana to begin her full spectrum primary care practice, including the practice of obstetrics. She established Big Sky Family Medicine (Kalispell, MT) in 1986 where she practiced full-spectrum primary care until 2006. Her medical interest in chronic pain management caused her to move her practice focus to the Montana Center in Kalispell, Montana where she pursued her interest in fibromyalgia management for 3 years. In 2010 she assumed the role of physician mentor of the Journey to Wellness program at the Summit Medical Fitness Center, where she is currently certified as a health and wellness coach. She is certified as a Health and Wellness Coach at the Professional Level. As a health and wellness coach, Dr. Pam shares her passion for effecting change in patient's lives so they can successfully pursue and really live their individual wellness visions. Pam is the mother of 4 grown children, and hobbies include music, kayaking, gardening, cycling, cooking gluten-free, and Nordic walking.
