A break for the family caregiver

It's OK to need it, it's OK to want it, and it's OK to get it!

What is Respite Care?

- Respite is about giving you temporary relief.
- 50% of people who are caring for a loved one experience stress. Routine activities may feel overwhelming. Respite provides temporary relief to caregivers by providing quality, competent care for the family member being cared for.
- The benefits of quality respite care are numerous. Respite care positively impacts family caregivers, the family members they care for, and the community where they live.
