MONTANA LONG-TERM CARE OMBUDSMAN PROGRAM

Working to Provide Education, Assistance and Advocacy to Long-Term Care Residents
and their Families in an Effort to Ensure Dignity and Quality of Life.

Ombudsmen respond to the concerns of people who live in long-term care facilities.

An Ombudsman can help residents not only understand but exercise their right to good care.

Ombudsmen are resident focused, and resident directed. Ombudsmen will investigate situations of concern to residents if residents wish.

When a complaint is received, ombudsmen move into action at the residents' request.

They may supply information, suggest solutions, and press for action or change on behalf of residents.
